Activity Or Mission Description

Description

children and families primarily in Ukraine with other ministry programs in Kosovo, Armenia, and Russia. Our ministry in Russia consists of financial support for national Russian missionaries in various regions of Russia to share the gospel in prisons, orphanages and develop rehabilitation programs around the country. Our approach is to strengthen families by providing ministry services for their specific needs. These services are intended to provide support in the education, medical, emotional and spiritual areas of life for vulnerable children and their families.

First Program Service Accomplishments DescriptionDescription

16 Case Workers (Childcare Coordinators); 1 Education Center in Ivankiv, Ukraine; 1 Education Center in Konotop, Ukraine for 55 Special Needs Children. Family Sponsorships is how we connect sponsors to families receiving support. The various types of families receiving help include single parent families; grandparents raising children; Extended family members raising children; Parents who adopt children; and Foster Parents who receive official government support and private foster parents who do not receive government support. Sponsorship benefits include medical assistance, Christmas presents; exchanging and translating letters with sponsors; Education help, English classes, Computer training, and support services from our local childcare caseworkers. Approximately 800 minor children benefit from the family sponsorship program. Christian Camps: Due to covid-19, no Christian camps took place. Instead, we focused on computer based outreach through social media, zoom calls, games, email, and phone calls. Hearts of Love Center for handicapped children: 2020 was a very difficult year for our Special Needs Child Center "Hearts of Love" in Konotop, Ukraine. The Center closed down for several months due to covid-19 and parents of these children were frantic. A special trip to the sea was arranged by the Center director and this was quite successful. We hope to sponsor this type of trip for these special children in the future. In Ukraine, an extension of developing strong Christian disciples is our Student Scholarship program. Young people showing Christian character, good grades, and who agree to monitoring and counsel from our Student program director, are eligible for scholarships depending on their level of higher education. Families in Kosovo are primarily widows or those with special needs such as mental illness, blindness, or emotional trauma. The Kosovo program is designed to provide basic food necessities for these very poor children and their families. Families are able to redeem grocery vouchers each month for 50 Euros ($65) at a local grocery store partner. (No alcohol or tobacco). Ministry in Kosovo is done through partnership with a local church that is a church plant in the Muslim community of Malisheve. Children and families are encouraged to take part in church related activities including English and Bible classes. We support church planting as well in Kosovo and outreach to the youth in Malisheve, Kosovo. In Russia we financially support 4 pastors (chaplains) who reside in different areas of Russia. These men also work part time to support their families and ministries. They are part of local Russian churches and use their financial sponsorship to pay for expenses to travel and share Christ's love in adult prisons, in youth prisons, and with at-risk youth in orphanages. They mobilize local churches in those regions to assist orphans and ex-prisoners. They work with churches throughout Siberia, the Urals, and the Caucasus to start Rehabilitation Homes and discipleship ministries for released prisoners.
